

COVID Policy
for
Childcare Program Fees

In the event a classroom or program is closed due to a positive COVID case for an entire week, all monies paid for that week will be applied to the next week of care. If the child is not registered for the next week of care, a credit will be applied to the household.

In the event a classroom or program is closed due to a positive COVID case for part of a week, the tuition rate will be prorated and the credit will be applied to the next week of care. If the child is not registered for the next week of care, a credit will be applied to the household.

In the event a child tests positive for COVID or has a family member test positive (requiring the child to self quarantine) for COVID, and will be out for an entire week, all monies paid for that week will be applied to the next week of care if a doctor's note accompanies the notification. If the child is not registered for the next week of care, a credit will be applied to the household.

In the event a child tests positive for COVID or has a family member test positive (requiring the child to self quarantine) for COVID, but has attended one or more days in that week of care, the full tuition rate will be charged.
